Community Labour Adjustment Services

From Your Committee.....

July 2010

Our office has moved! We are now in the Mahle office which is located at the top of the stairs and to the right.

As you are aware the Chromeshield Adjustment office is slowly coming to an end..... We figured by the end of September the government funds will be gone and the office will be close.

Since January/09 we have had one of the highest numbers of members participating in going back to school for their ESL, OSSD and Second Careers. We wish everyone luck in their new career ventures and their future.

If you still require assistance with resumes, job search, internet access etc... that will all still be available to you through the Community Labour Adjustment office. Darlene will receive all our members files so that they can assist you after we are gone. But before I can hand over your file to Darlene; we will need you to contact us at the office to give us permission to give Darlene your file because of the privacy act. Without permission we cannot hand your file over. So if you know that you are going to use these services please make sure you contact us.

Starting this month (July) the office will no longer be open on Wednesdays. Also there maybe some days that we will be closed without notice due to our funding. The office hours will be slowly winding down but the Community Labour Adjustment office will still be operating Monday through Friday 9am till 4pm for all your needs.

If you have any questions or concerns you can contact us at the office @ 519-256-6142 Ext 225 (New)

Volunteering

Have you every thought about Volunteering? Volunteering is a way to network with people and add to your skill set or maybe just to keep your current skills fresh?

Volunteering has always been a very important part of our Community. During these difficult economic times volunteering has become a very helpful tool for those who are job searching.

- Networking and meeting new people can open doors to possible job opportunities
- Closing the gaps of unemployment on your resume
- Shows potential employer's that you are willing to learn new skills or the importance of keeping your current skills fresh
- Socializing and meeting new people always helps with the feeling of isolation and depression that can happen during job loss and the frustration you maybe feeling during your job search

We have added a new category on our job leads page on the website and also on the job boards in the community area that will include opportunities in volunteering.

If you have any questions or concerns about volunteering please feel free to contact our office or stop by and the Peer Helpers at the Centre will assist you with your needs.
